(1) Swiss students (incl. Principality of Liechtenstein) and students with a B residence permit (not including residence permit B for educational purposes) or C residence permit are generally eligible to receive subsidised school fees by their canton of residence or place of origin. SHL submits an application on behalf of the students to the canton liable for granting the subsidies. Students from abroad who are resident in Switzerland before commencing their studies can also submit an application for clarification.

(2) Includes all learning materials, exam fees, excursions, a knife set, as well as kitchen and service uniforms. Not included are the application fee of CHF 280 (non-refundable) and the fees for accommodation on SHL Campus.

(3) Breakfast, lunch and dinner from Monday to Thursday, breakfast and lunch on Friday.

Semesters 2 and 4 are paid 6-month industry internships. Students must complete at least one of the internships in Switzerland. The minimum gross salary per month for internships in Switzerland is CHF 2'359.
